

Honors & Recognition

Norwood author nabs Silver Book Award

Ann Greyson

NORWOOD – Gotham Kitty, by local author Ann Greyson, was awarded a Silver Book Award in the 2021 Literary Titan Book Awards of Irvine, California.

In Literary Titan’s review of the book, Thomas Anderson described the writing as such, “The story is told from constantly alternating points of views that give readers a well-rounded understanding of what’s going on in the story and ensures readers know the motivations of all the characters.”

The story of Gotham Kitty, about an alien that finds itself on Earth and ends up participating in a ritual to remove a curse on the Chagga of East Africa, was inspired by a dance performance by Greyson who has a background in theater and dance.

She is currently writing a new novel. Set for Spring 2022 release, Birdwatcher, a psychological ghost story set in the Poconos of Pennsylvania, will explore that even in death life is not quite out of reach. Her other award-winning books are The Lonely Vampire and Never-DEAD.

Gotham Kitty is available to purchase on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Target and Walmart.